Faxtector

The Faxtector is a lightweight protection device suitable for the protection of fax machines and digital copiers.

Rating: Not Rated Yet
Ask a question about this product

Description

It features high energy surge protection and filtration, as well as failsafe thermal and overload disconnection.

Features:

- Protects power and telephone line
- Compact size
- Plug and play installation

- For analogue and ISDN applications
- Power and data protection incorporates surge platform concept