SS22

This unit allows users the luxury of making public address announcements from any telephone in their building. No longer do they need a PA microphone to make announcements, nor do they have to be in a specific location to do so.

Rating: Not Rated Yet
Ask a question about this product

Description

This unit allows users the luxury of making public address announcements from any telephone in their building. No longer do they need a PA microphone to make announcements, nor do they have to be in a specific location to do so.

Features:

- Connects to any Exchange Line or Extension Port
- Automatically mutes background music
- Settable VOX timeout
- 2 x relay contacts for use as required

Click here for a brochure
Click here for technical specifications